

Photographs

We often take photographs at camp and other events to publicise our group. We assume that most parents are quite happy for these pictures to be used in Scout publicity, the website and other publications and the children are not usually individually named.

Please let your section leader know if you have any objections to photographs being taken and used.

Last update on Mon 08 Aug 2016 by Alan Comber.